Their betting utterly boys of 15; in 1890 there were six boys and two collapsed before the grand bowling and fielding of girls between the ages of 12 and 15. In 1891 the Kent team. Five wickets were down for the figures were exactly the same, and last year Bruce played freely, and made 23 out of there were seven boys between the ages of 9 and 14, and one girl of, 12. The causes that led to Walter Giffen played steadily, and caused the snicide of the youngest of them is given as a Martin to relieve Wright in the bowling, reproach to the parents, whilst most of the snicides between the ages of 14 and 16 were Burnerman carried his bat throughout the caused by disappointment in love. It is a signiinnings for 7 runs. The innings lasted one hour | floant fact, however, that this lamentable epiand three-quarters, and the play caused intense damic of self-destruction on the part of school childrenshaa grown to its present proportions since religious education was abolished in the schools. As a stamp-collector the Duke of York must have been pleased with the present he received on the occasion of his wedding from the Philatalic Society. No money was subscribed by his philatelia colleagues, but all were invited to give out of their private stores a few rare stamps to make up a collection for presentation. Time. it appears, did not allow of communication with members resident in far distant lands, vet The Daily News, in commenting upon the the promoters of the movement were fortunate collapse of the Australian batting in the Kent in finding that upwards of 100 members mat h, says it scarcely remembers Australian responded to the invitation. In making the arrangements care was taken to ensure, as far

BE possible, that the stamps included in the W'chai Wareh'ee Co. present should be such as would be acceptable Watson & Co., A. S., forday. Grabam, Turner, and Trumble are additions to the Duke's collection. That collection has by this means gained an accession of Australia, at the Kennington Oval on Monday | 1500 specimene, mostly naused and in fine condition, which have been mounted in a handsome volume containing a suitable inscription. Thus it comes about that the Duke is now the proud New Malwa $590 0 to 4 catties. possessor of the first Indian half-sons and one- Old Malwa $600 anna stamps, of two fine copies of the Caucdian 4 & 5 years' old Malwa ... 2610 1 to 2 steady game, while G.
